

Dear Student,

Re: British Accreditation Council accreditation

We are pleased to inform you that the British Accreditation Council (BAC) accredits your place of study.

This accreditation means that your institution has chosen to seek external accreditation and receive a review on its processes to demonstrate to you that it is a high quality institution.

In order to achieve BAC accreditation, the institution has had to demonstrate that it meets BAC's rigorous standards in six inspection areas:

- Governance, Strategy and Financial Management
- General and Academic Management and Administration
- Teaching, Learning and Assessment
- Student Support, Guidance and Progression
- Premises, Facilities and Learning Resources
- Quality Management, Assurance and Enhancement

Higher education experts from the BAC inspectorate assessed the institution against our standards during a formal inspection visit. The Inspection team wrote a report for the independent Accreditation Committee who subsequently awarded accreditation which is valid for four years.

The inspection report is available in the Directory and Inspection Reports section on the BAC website www.the-bac.org

About BAC

BAC was established by the UK's Department of Education and the British Council in 1984 to oversee independent further and higher education in the UK. We are a registered charity and a not for profit organisation. As a full member of the European Association for Quality Assurance in Higher Education (ENQA) and the International Network for Quality Assurance Agencies in Higher Education (INQAAHE) we have been externally assessed on our organisation's standards and processes.

BAC currently accredits more than 230 institutions across 20 countries.

We wish you the best of luck in your studies and success in your future career. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Yours faithfully,

British Accreditation Council
